

TOP 10 AFTER 10

Arash Madani '02

Arash Madani, originally from Truro, Nova Scotia, graduated from Bishop's University with a B.B.A. in 2002. He began his career with The Score after stints in sports radio, daily newspapers (including the Truro Daily News) and he has twice directed public relations for CFL teams.

Arash has been with Sportsnet since 2009, covering a gamut of sports – from Hockey Night In Canada to the Olympics, to multiple World Series, NBA Finals and Super Bowls. Passionate about storytelling and play-by-play, Madani has travelled the world covering live events, sideline reporting, and producing both news items and features for the network. He is also a radio co-host on Prime Time Sports. He has had the distinction to interview some of the biggest newsmakers in sports including Roger Federer, Usain Bolt, David Beckham and Derek Jeter.

The Bishop's TOP 10 AFTER 10 initiative highlights the success of Bishop's graduates as leaders in business, education, science, community and volunteer service... in fact, in every walk of life. Arash Madani was selected by a committee of previous TOP 10 AFTER 10 winners and he was inducted into the 2017 Class on September 22, 2017 at a ceremony on campus. Bishop's takes pride in celebrating the achievements of its graduates and we congratulate you, Arash, on your induction into the prestigious TOP 10 AFTER 10. You personify the quality of a Bishop's liberal arts education, you serve as an inspiration to current students, and you instill pride in all members of the Bishop's community.
